SOLEMNITY OF CHRIST THE KING

November 21, 2021

Gospel Today: John 18:33b-37– “Today we reflect upon this title that we have given to Jesus. Jesus distinguishes his kingdom from the political powers of this world. He refers to a kingdom that does not belong to this world. As modern disciples of Jesus, we also struggle at times to recognize Jesus as king. The Gospel invites us to see with eyes of faith that we might recognize that Jesus, through his crucifixion and death, is indeed king and Savior of all.”

5-Week Video Clips - Each week, beginning today Sunday, November 21, 2021, the Solemnity of Christ the King, and for the four Sundays of Advent, the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB) will release a video recording reflecting on the Gospel Reading for each Sunday. This year's reflections are inspired by the journey of truth, healing & reconciliation, and the Indigenous Delegation traveling to Rome to meet with Pope Francis from December 17 to 20. 2021. Archbishop Donald Bolen of Regina will reflect each week. The videos can be accessed through the links below.

Pope Francis – “Prayer is primarily listening and encountering God. The problems of everyday life, then, do not become obstacles, but appeals from God himself to listen to and encounter those who are in front of us. The trials of life thus change into opportunities to grow in faith and charity.”

Synod of Bishop Survey- Kindly return back the survey paper you have filled up today Sunday November 21. A second set of Survey will be conducted in the month of December.

Missals 2021-2022 – Missals for the coming liturgical year (year C) are available at church entrance. Donation is much appreciated to defray purchase & delivery expenses.

Feast of Christ the King – This feast has several levels of meaning. By calling Christ our King we are making a statement that Jesus is the Lord of our lives. It means that we place Christ first, and that we serve the Lord Jesus with the allegiance of our hearts, minds, and bodies. We belong to Christ, who rules us. "That in the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of those that are in heaven, on earth and under the earth: and that every tongue should confess that the Lord Jesus Christ is in the glory of God the Father."(Philippians 2:10-11) Christ Himself speaks of His own kingly authority in his last discourse, speaking of the eternal rewards and punishments of the just and the damned; in his reply to the Roman magistrate, who asked him publicly whether he were a king or not; after his resurrection, when giving to his Apostles the mission of teaching and Baptizing all nations, he took the opportunity to call himself king, confirming the title publicly, and solemnly proclaimed that all power was given him in heaven and on earth. These words can only be taken to indicate the greatness of his power, the infinite extent of his kingdom. It was surely right, then, in view of the common teaching of the sacred books, that the Catholic Church, which is the kingdom of Christ on earth, destined to be spread among all men and all nations, should with every token of veneration salute her Author and Founder in her annual liturgy as King and Lord, and as King of Kings.
